CLASP ON TO THE MEMORIES

If you were here in the 50's, 60's, 70's or 80's, please read carefully!! A great celebration is planned in January the 17th and 18th at Horseshoe Bay! We would love to have you come celebrate with us and would suggest you sign up soon if you are planning on coming! We have a great roster already signed up! The plans are . . .

Friday, that night is for visiting and visiting and more visiting! Our hospitality room will be open and a great meeting place for those of you coming in different directions.

Saturday is a day for "playing" at the camps and a light lunch is planned at both camps . . . Saturday, noonish. And after a full day of fun, fun, fun with lots of tall tales and funny jokes of past it's back to the hotel for a great dinner and a wonderful "campfire" by JOHN MILLER and cast!

We have a block of rooms on hold (and we think there are not many left) if you think you can join us. The price is right (and this price includes dinner, Campfire Saturday night and also the Resort Fee. A great, simple package!) . . . Please take advantage of it soon!

Two night stay with one dinner - $464.92
Two night stay with two dinners - $550.36
Saturday only stay with one dinner - $275.18
Saturday only stay with two dinners - $360.62

For those of you who will not be staying at the hotel but will be driving in for dinner on Saturday night, the cost of the meal will be $87.05 including tax & service and should be sent to the Alumni Office at Camp Longhorn .. no later than seven (7) days before arrival! CHECK or CASH ONLY! To CLASP! .. #1 Camp Longhorn Road . . . Burnet, TX 78611

Here is how it works! THE NUMBER TO CALL for room/package reservations at Horseshoe Bay Resort is 877-611-0112. Just say you are calling about the Camp Longhorn Reunion. If you have any problems calling the resort, please let us know! Reservations must be made on or before Friday, January 3rd, 2020 to get the special CLH rates (if there are rooms left!). There is a 72 hour cancellation notice prior to arrival.

IT'S PLAN, PLAN, PLAN to come and have FUN, FUN, FUN! And remember, this goes for a year towards your CLH ring if you are saving for that!

See you Jan. 17th & 18th at HSB for CLH's 80th B-Day celebration!

Happy 80th Birthday Camp Longhorn!

CLH getting ready for summer

Dear Friends,
What a great day this is! Perfect for a fall day! So many weather changes! No rain most of the summer after the first couple of weeks . . warm, warm! .. and this is the beginning of November and we have already had a hard freeze! Guess that's just Texas weather! This is such a pretty time of the year . . the grass is green and the trees are turning into fall colors and we had some beautiful plants to admire until the freeze!

Camp is busy, busy, busy! I think most of the annuals have been delivered and the others have been mailed. Great, great annuals and we thank ANGELA MOORE at Inks, MARTHA FIELD at Springs and JENNIFER ROBERTSON at C3 for their beautiful, creative books. AND, we have already started the CLH Carnival season with NEW YORK, CONNECTICUT, SAN FRANCISCO and ATLANTA already finished! Our Alumni and Special Parents are great help at these gatherings along with lots of laughter and much fun.

If you can help at a Camp Longhorn Carnival please e-mail HELEN at helen@camplonghorn.com or call her (512-793-2811) and she will sign you up! And, to all of you who help year after year, WE THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH!

What a busy year this has been! We have, I think just under 7,000 (Camp Longhorn Alumni and Special Parents) members in our files after taking out those that had never paid any dues! We are still looking for those thousands we have yet to reach. This loosely knit organization is enjoyed by many .. It's your e-mails, telephone calls pictures and letters that make it so much fun.

Dues paying CLASP members enjoy their V-Day special parking places!

There are several ways to pay CLASP dues! Can go on line, use the form in this newspaper or sign up at a Camp Carnival! It's easy and to those that worry about their "pass," all will be sent to up-to-date dues paying members around the first of May! There is lots of time between now and when camp starts so please don't wait until the last minute to pay your dues .. For those that mostly wait until the last minute anyway, sign up on line and show your phone as you enter the camps that you have paid your dues! It's still a bargain .. $15.00 SINGLE and $20.00 for MARRIED COUPLES. We also have a very popular LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP .. $200.00 AND ADD A SPOUSE, $250.00.

Our up-to-date dues paying members will come from the airstrips and into camp first! If grandparents are involved, they will need a pass also, or park in another area! If it's a must that the cars stay together .. one with a "tag" and the other without, then the two cars will go to the area that "passes" are not required! All of this is mentioned because in the past there was confusion with cars parking together!

CLASP mailings are separate from regular camp mailings and "parking passes" will not be in the camper information. If your dues are up-to-date, look for your "pass" around the first of May.

The CLASP tables on V-Days are always popular with many questions and lots of fun stories and tall tales! We always have so many wonderful volunteers and V-Days are no exception .. to answer questions and do just about anything asked of them! At Inks lake we have great group of young adults that help park cars on the airstrip! And, they come the night before to be up and about and ready for duty at 5 a.m.!! Couldn't do it without them and we thank them so much!

Our "memory bricks" at both camps are still sooo popular! What a wonderful place to have your name(s) or to remember a loved one. At Indian springs the bricks are located between the chow hall and office and at Inks Lake they are in the pavilion, a special place to honor TEX and four founders of CLH .. BOB TARTLTON, ZARK WITHERS, DR. JOE SHEPPERD and BOB HUDSON. If you wish to purchase a brick, the cost is still $100. A form is included in this newspaper or call or e-mail the CLASP offices at either camp for more information.

We had two special tree ceremonies at camp this past summer. ASHLEY BALCH MacKENNA, our fall recipient, was honored at Indian Springs during camp and was attended by her sister and friends with many, many excited campers! LINCOLN ROSE, our 2019 recipient at Inks Lake, was honored during 2nd Term at camp this past summer and had many friends and campers in attendance. These wonderful alumni were remembered for their many, many accomplishments through the years.

We missed our mini-camps this past August. We love our Alumni and appreciate Camp Longhorn for allowing us to host mini-camp off and on through the years. We have these camps to experience a little piece of Attawaytogo spirit, bring back memories, meet up with old friends and to meet new ones.

Mini-camp is supposed to be alcohol free and it has become difficult for us to get the point across to some of our Alumni. So, after the BOARD OF MANAGERS

ATTAWAYTOGO PHIL SIROIS

Congratulations to our newest inductee into the CLASP Hall of Honor, PHIL SIROIS!

This summer will be PHIL's 20th summer at Camp! Since 1999 PHIL has come every summer as camp's videographer. He started filming at Indian Springs but now covers all three camps which is a huge job. His talents are amazing as a photographer and videographer as he captures the fun and happiness with a passion.

PHIL grew up in Brownwood, Texas. He played every sport imaginable which stoked his passion for competition, which eventually led to his livelihood as a coach and teacher.

He was mentored by the great football coach, GORDON WOOD, and his wife, KATIE, which had a great impact on his life. PHIL graduated from Brownwood High School and played on a district champs basketball team. PHIL went to Howard Payne University where he became the youngest college head coach in the country coaching basketball. This became the beginning of a 42 year career of coaching.

He and his wife LEE were married in 1984. They had a daughter WHITNEY and a son ANDY. After many years of coaching high school basketball, he finished his career in Mesquite and the family settled in Sunnyvale. His relationships with his fellow coaches and his players is beyond words to describe. PHIL became the mentor, friend and role model to so many!

He started his work with camping in 1976 at Camp Champions and then went back as a staff member with LEE in the early 80s. He also did their slide show which started his career in photography. This side career would take him to work with Camp TV for 32 years, photographer for The Texas High School Coaches Association for 34 years, and recently Mayes Media Group.

LEE and PHIL's son, ANDY, came to camp and their daughter, WHITNEY was a camper, counselor and staff member until 2015. PHIL says it is a great honor for him and his family. . . . They love Camp Longhorn and what it has done for his family! It actually is an honor being able to recognize PHIL with a tree in his honor during 1st term this summer! He inspires us all. . . . MARTHA, all the photographers, staff and campers!

A NOTE FROM A HAPPY MOM . .

Subject: NAN MANNING DELIVERING THE CLH ANNUAL Kim,

Will you please pass along a note of huge thanks from my son, BLAKE BLOSSMAN, Indian Springs 4th Term? He was blown away when he answered the door and NAN was standing there. The Annual is on the side of his bed and it's been a couple of weeks and I have heard the story 100 times. I love it, too. Thank you so much CLH. You are the best!

A JC's POSITIVE EXPERIENCE AT CAMP

Subject: V-Day

To: KERI MANNING WEAVER & NAN MANNING

Hello! Catherine has had a great experience as a JC! She has mentioned more than once that CLH treats their counselors so well. Thank you for helping make this a fun experience for her. We dropped her off, so will need to be picking her up. I know V-day ends 10:30/11:00, so what time would be best to pick her up? We don't want to be in the way of the well oiled machine that V-day is.

Warm Regards,

met after the August 2018 mini-camp at Inks Lake, decided to suspend mini-camp at least two years to give them time to think thru the situation.

This past year we have had lots of ideas. And, we thank our Alumni for giving this some serious thought with some interesting suggestions. We are working on it and hope we can come up with a solution by next summer?! With all of the wonderful people and minds that love camp Longhorn I just know we can have many more years of fun, fun, fun at Inks Lake and Indian Springs mini-camps!

If you are not already a member of CLASP and would like to join or you are a member and would like to pay your dues, our Camp Carnivals in Dec., Jan. and Feb., on-line on the CLH website or sign-up sheet in this newspaper are all easy ways to pay your dues! Again, it's a bargain .. $20 Married Couples and $15 Singles. CLASP (Camp Longhorn Alumni and Special Parents) is made up of former campers and counselors who are at least 23 years old and also any parent(s) who have or have had children at camp for at least two years and signed for a 3rd year! OUR CLASP 'YEAR' IS FROM SEPTEMBER TO SEPTEMBER!

SEE YOU SOON AT A CLH CARNIVAL AND IF YOU WERE HERE IN THE 50'S, 60'S, 70'S OR 80'S I WILL SEE YOU FOR SURE AT THE 80TH Birthday Bash for CLH at Horseshoe Bay January 17th and 18th, 2020!!

ASHLEY accepting her "forever tree!"

ASHLEY BALCH MacKENNA, fall 2018 CLASP honoree at Indian Springs, was at Springs for many, many years as a camper, counselor, director and for many years she ran the girls camp. In 1990 she was voted favorite counselor.

She went to the University of Kansas on a music scholarship and was a member of Chi Omega sorority. Her BEAUTIFUL VOICE led her to Theatre Tulsa and also Southern Methodist University.

She always kept her ties with CLH . . . and helped whenever she could.

We were all happy when ASHLEY moved to camp with her family and became a full time employee. Her leadership, toughness, compassion, positive attitude, love and friendship affected every camper and counselor. With a terribly ill father, she eventually moved her family back to Tulsa.

A year or so ago she moved back to Burnet area and is now Girls Camp Director at Camp Champions.

She has three amazing grown children, ELIZABETH at Texas Tech, MACK a senior at Burnet High School and MARY KATE, a junior at Burnet High School. All three attended Indian Springs as campers and now all three are counselors there!

WE LOVE YOU ASHLEY!

LINCOLN first started his TV play-by-play career in high school and continued to announce games in college and law school. Today, LINCOLN partners with various national and regional networks, college conferences, universities and professional leagues, broadcasting a wide array of men's and women's sports. LINCOLN's camping experiences have made him knowledgeable in many of those sports. He has not been assigned a broadcast in archery or pickleball, yet!!

For the past decade, he has returned to Burnet each V-Day to see old camp friends and assist with CLASP parking at Inks. As the parents drive into camp those early mornings, the first camp person they see is LINCOLN with many of his favorite camp stories to tell!

Thanks for your great help, LINCOLN ROSE, through the years . . . You are the backbone of parking 300 or so cars, keeping all happy through the process and we thank you again for all you do for camp!

More Than A Camp . . . A Place That Truly Nurtures

By BEN ESPY

I started my history with Camp Longhorn as a 10 year-old Hawk in 1979 at the Ranch Branch. NOT Camp Longhorn at Indian Springs as we have come to know it today. I was a very introverted and shy kid that hadn't had much exposure to simple things that many people would consider common. Simple things like spending the night out.

I was sent to Camp Longhorn because my mom, SALLY KLEBERG, had gone to Inks Lake. Next thing I know I am in a cabin with 10 or 11 other ten year olds that probably have all my same fears. I spent most nights crying myself to sleep, hoping that no one would know.

Of course I convinced myself that I was the only one homesick and scared and all the other kids are destined to be Campfire Lighters. I faked illness, injury, tried to convince the front office that my mom thought it was best if she picked me up. Of course none of that worked and I'm sure cost me some valuable time in getting close with my fellow campers.

Although I came from an urban setting (my dad was an attorney in San Antonio), at a very early age I was fortunate enough to live most of my summers with my aunt and uncle working on a ranch. I learned how to fix fence, shovel stalls, move cows, feed horses, and clean water troughs. It wasn't that I was not used to outdoors activities, I was just plain scared when I started Camp Longhorn.

I think looking back I was just simply scared of making friends. I came back the next year and the next year and the next year and began to thrive. I looked forward to seeing my friends and eating spaghetti. I had great counselors and realized that in a perfect world maybe I could come back and be a counselor. They were my heroes. They were cool and tan and athletic and friendly. All the stuff I wasn't.

Eventually I was a Campfire Lighter, got the Scuba award, Hoss award, Favorite, and as a counselor I was Marine General twice. My brother also thrived at Camp Longhorn and he went more years than I did and went on to be a Staff Member.

All of my four children have attended Camp Longhorn. MADELEINE ESPY is now 20 and playing soccer in Kentucky on a scholarship. CLAUDIA ESPY is a junior in high school and applying to colleges. BENJAMIN ESPY just finished his marine year, and ELI ESPY just went to camp for the first time in the summer of 2019.

The reason I bring this all up is that I always reminisce about what it would have been like to have spent entire summers at Camp Longhorn. Many counselors when I went there were adults. Of course there were college kids, but there were quite a few that were 30 and 40 years old.

Camp Longhorn was an integral part of their life and unknowingly, although I only spent three weeks there every summer, it had also shaped my life and my personality in ways that are unable to be defined.

Now at 50 years old, I have been married to a lady for 26 years that was a traitor. She was an alum from Camp Longhorn at Inks Lake. SHANNON ESPY was a girl that had developed her wonderful personality in the friendly confines of a place I didn't know well but had been taught by Camp Longhorn to be polite, active, friendly, respectful, and other personality traits that all of us have as alums of Camp Longhorn.

Fast-forward to graduation from veterinary school, practicing in Brenham, TX, Lexington, KY, and currently back home in San Antonio, TX. Many people will tell you that the Aggie ring is a symbol of a special fraternity that often pops up in board rooms, in airports, and in places where you least expect it. The Aggie ring is a symbol that ingratiates you to other fellow Aggies because it means that you have similar attributes and personality traits. Camp Longhorn is very much like that.

I continue to have Camp Longhorn run through every chord of my life. The lessons that I learn and the people that I meet constantly have connections to Camp Longhorn, either as parents of children that attend Camp Longhorn and/or as alums of this great institution.

I am currently the veterinarian for the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo for 23 years. Now as an veterinarian where over 80% of my practice consists of professional rodeo clients in Texas and bucking horses in Colorado and Percherons in Utah, the lessons and personality traits that I learned at Camp Longhorn still are useful to me.

I speak with respect to people. I always say, "Yes sir" and "No ma'am." I try hard and I don't give up. I love being outdoors so much I don't even own or work in a clinic. I practice completely out of my truck.

I am back home now practicing on the best timed event horses in the world in the Texas Hill Country. Not necessarily in Burnet but in Kerrville, Boerne, and Fredricksburg. There are many evenings, especially in the spring, when I see that late sunset over the Texas Hill Country that all of us remember at Camp Longhorn. I think all of us would agree that Camp Longhorn is "fun." But I would remind people that not only is Camp Longhorn "fun," but it is actually important. An important place that nurtures leaders and successful people and friends.

BEN ESPY, this is such a special story . . . and so interesting . . . Not only are you a Veterinarian but a writer also. I'm so happy your wonderful Mom, SALLY KLEBERG, sent you to camp and you continued for many years. Each year was easier then the last and you won so many awards as a camper. We are so happy you are in this special fraternity called Camp Longhorn. Your clients are professional rodeo clients in Texas, bucking horses in Colorado, Percherons in Utah and your truck is your clinic! What an interesting life, BEN, not to mention broken bones and other scrapes and bruises that your special clients took advantage of! He is currently the Veterinarian for the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo. BEN, a five year camper at Ranch Branch (Indian Springs) and two as a counselor, grew up in San Antonio and lives there now with wife SHANNON ESPY

(an Inks Lake Alumni) and their children . . . MADELEINE ESPY (20), many years a camper and counselor at Indian Springs; CLAUDIA ESPY (17), many years a camper at Indian Springs; BENJAMIN ESPY (15) and this coming summer will be his 6th year at Indian Springs and ELI ESPY (10) and summer of 2020 will be his 2nd year at Indian Springs! BEN is an Equine Veterinarian and wife SHANNON is a Small Animal Veterinarian. Honors at camp were many . . . Campfire Lighter two time, Favorite in 1984, activity awards in scuba and hossback and Marine General two times as a counselor. BEN graduated from Duke University in 1991 and Texas A&M University Vet School in 1996. We thank you again, BEN, for such a delightful and interesting to read story!

The Camp Longhorn Experience Continues To Keep Us Connected

By ASHLEY BAXTER STOUT

I never thought the day would come when I would be picking up our oldest son, JACK from his Ranger (and 9th year) at Camp Longhorn. Getting to watch his love of Camp Longhorn grow and to have us both talk about camp together with his two younger brothers (who have yet to attend) has been such a special experience.

I went to CLH (main 3rd term) for 10 years and I can honestly say it is the place where I laughed the hardest, smiled the biggest and made the best memories I could ever ask for. I grew up with both my Mom and Dad talking about Camp Longhorn and the special place it held in their hearts.

My Dad, KELLY BAXTER, went to CLH (2nd term main) for 8 years and he always said "his biggest regret in life was not going back to CLH for his 9th year."

My mom, JK BAXTER-HUNT went to camp for 2 years as a counselor and always shared stories of her summer as Wrangler Down Counselor.

It's hard to explain to others who did not attend camp longhorn why camp is so special. There is just so much! Its the friends that I made over the ten years I was at camp and who I have continued to see throughout the many stages of my life. I remember when I was visiting the University of Texas and went to my first social event - over 50% of the people there were from CLH 3rd term ... What a relief!

Needless to say, I chose to attend the University of Texas. When I pledged Theta, many sorority sisters and girls I lived with my Freshman year at Hardin House, were all originally my campmates. I could also call these girls my soulmate. When my husband and I married and had children, it was crazy how many camp friends I would recognize as other parents at my children's school; Good Shepherd Episcopal School in Austin.

There is a special bond or secret language that no one really gets except us.. It's amazing to think bits and pieces of camp are always with me. No matter the year or place - the connections from CLH are never too far.

It's the deeply rooted traditions of Camp Longhorn and how nothing has really changed, that keeps us connected. The cabins my dad slept in as a camper are the same cabins: JACK (16) HOLLIS (5) and WRIGHT (4) slept in and will be sleeping in at camp. In a world that seems to be constantly changing, I am grateful to know that there is one place that is still the same-even after 80 years! Especially since I just recently gave birth to our first daughter, MURPHY, and I cannot wait to begin telling her all about this special place among the hills and dales

LOVE your article, ASHLEY BAXTER STOUT! It's

Lake for 11 years. And, you and your family .. 9 yrs. as a camper and 1 yr. a counselor. Son JACK STOUT (16) has been at Inks Lake for 9 years. And sons HOLLIS (5) and WRIGHT (4) are future campers. Then there is precious little MURPHY who will be a Wren in about 8 years! Oh, my, what fun CLH tales for many, many years to come in your household! Friends are priceless and you have sooo many friends. What wonderful connections to CLH. ASHLEY lives in Austin with husband COLE and their children and future campers! COLE is in the oil and gas business/industry and so is ASHLEY. As a camper she was a campfire lighter and 3rd term Senior Bonnett Princess at Inks Lake. Her one year as a Counselor, she was a Hummer Up Counselor and a ski instructor! ASHLEY graduated from UT in 2003. We thank you sooo much for taking time to write . . know how busy you are with three young children!

Life Comes Around Full Circle At Camp LH

By KRISTI SLIVA THIBAUT

When I received an email this week from HELEN FRADY reminding me I agreed to write an article for the CLH Alumni newsletter, I panicked! I had forgotten about it. And more importantly, I don't consider myself a very good writer. What would I say? But there's one thing I am certain about ... it's that you don't say no to HELEN FRADY. She's one of a kind and I didn't want to disappoint her.

The first year I went to Camp Longhorn, I went with my sister. My mom drove us to the big city of Houston to catch the bus to Burnet. I was terrified. I'm pretty sure I cried the entire way. I do recall stopping in La Grange for fried chicken.

But what I remember the most is going through the gates at CLH and feeling such awe ... it was so beautiful. It was hilly! So different from the flat, coastal prairies I was used to. I hadn't traveled much and to see Inks Lake for the first time-was magical. I thought to myself, "I get to live here for the next three weeks, this is so cool!"

The bus rolled into the girl's camp. I could see a crowd of people up ahead. I was nervous. I knew my sister and I would not be in the same cabin. Other than her, I didn't know anyone. The bus stopped. Before I knew it, some counselor called out my name and said I was a Lark. What's a Lark I thought? I gathered my belongings, headed to my new cabin, and I chose my bunk.

Soon after my arrival, I met my summer family. Three counselors and 11 other girls from all different areas in Texas. We would do everything together for the next three weeks. We were truly bonded by our experiences at camp.

Over the next five years as a camper, I learned so many life lessons and skills. I learned how to make a bed with hospital corners that first summer. I learned to sail, shoot a bow and arrow, and do a backflip on the trampoline. But most importantly, I made new, lifelong friends who I couldn't wait to see every summer.

You see, camp is a lot of fun. Wait....A LOT OF FUN. But it's the people you meet at camp that make it so special. And the quirky culture that you share with these folks. Try explaining checking out a book at the library to your mom. Or old face-full to a home town pal. Pit stop ... chow time ... the list goes on and on.

I think that's why so many campers had parents that attended camp. We all wanted to make sure our kids got to have the same incredible summer experiences we had at Camp Longhorn. I can still hear the camp songs in my head. There is a place among the hills and dales

Now, my son attends first term. He could go all summer if ROGER would let him. After V-Day, we were home and he looked every day in the mail to see if his early bird had arrived. It warms my heart that he is just as excited as I used to be waiting to see if he got his invitation back to camp. Yeah! It's here!

Funny how life has come full circle. I hope he shares Camp Longhorn with his children. Upon a lake where breezes fill the sails

KRISTI SLIVA-THIBAUT, this story is excellent! It is so light and fun to read. The bus ride to camp .. the hilly scenery, finding your LARK cabin and knowing the next three weeks would be spent with those 11 cabin mates and counselors! Great description of day one!! More important than all of that is the lifelong friends made! Your group of camp friends still experience the camaraderie and closeness you'all have had through these many years! And now, life has come full circle you can talk to your son, a camper at Inks Lake, about all the things you experienced in the past and he is experiencing now! A camper five years and counselor another five years . . . all at Inks Lake . . . KRISTI was raised in Bay City and now lives in Houston with husband MARK THIBAUT and son CHRISTOPHER (II) and next summer will be his 4th year at Inks Lake. She is RUNNING FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER! Husband MARK . . . VP Crude Oil Trading. As a counselor at camp she was in charge of the water skiing program. KRISTI graduated from the University of Texas. We thank you again, KRISTI SLIVA-THIBAUT, for your wonderful story! AND Good luck with the election!!

Lessons Learned . . . Those Summer Adventures That Shaped Me

By JOHN BEAUCHAMP

I learned more life lessons at Camp Longhorn than I can count. Many were general in nature, such as how to get along with people, but many were very specific. From time to time when I am faced with situations, I remember an instance at camp that helped shape the way I will respond. These moments bring a smile to my face as I remember the good times in the sun.

There is something about the lessons learned away from home, and away from parents, that is particularly significant. The following are a few of the many lessons from those summer adventures that helped shape me to the person I am now.

You Can't Always Rely on Help - Sometimes You Need to Do it Yourself

I have RAY FRADY to thank for this one. 1977 - Navajo Cabin, 1/2 mile Warm-up for the Mile Swim. Inks Lake looked large and threatening to this nine-year old at camp for the first time. We were loaded on a barge that made its way to the middle of the lake. Soon, the counselor cut the motor and the barge eased to a stop.

"Everybody in- NOW! Go! Go! Go!" We might as well have been jumping over France on D-Day. JOHN GARRETT, BILL JOHNSON, and BURTON BALDRIDGE showed camper-poise. They had done this the year before. Cool and collected, they took the leap and started with their well-practiced freestyle.

As a newby, I hesitated before jumping and attempting the breast stroke. It was supposed to be the easy stroke, but this was open water and I swallowed gulp after gulp of lake water. Other kids were moving past me, throwing elbows and smacking me with their kicking feet. It only took moments for panic to set in.

I wanted none of this swim, and I was going to find a way out. The barge was already motored-up and heading back to shore. No luck there. The next best bet was the counselor about 15 feet away. I didn't really know him, but I certainly knew who he was - RAY FRADY.

RAY was old school. The kids all knew he was the big shot. Surely, he wasn't going to let me sink. I made my way for him as fast as I could, yelling "RAY-RAY-help me!" I expected him either to help me or bawl me out. What I didn't expect was for him to roll over into an elementary backstroke and shoot a fountain of water out of his mouth.

"What do you expect me to do?" he asked. "I'm enjoying my swim!" The messages were clear: (i) man-up and do this yourself, and (ii) roll over into an elementary back stroke if you're having trouble. I got it as a nine-year old, and I remember the lesson today.

Thanks, RAY. I'll always remember you for that one.

Sometimes an Embarrassing Event can Become a Claim to Fame

Again, 1977 - Navajo Cabin. JOHAN WICHT was a boisterous counselor from South Africa. We didn't know what to make of his accent. Was he a pirate? Who knew? What we did know was that he seemed to carry a lot of respect. You wanted to be on his good side.

The first day I came face-to-face with JOHAN was at sailing. I suppose I was the officer of the day, because I was telling him my name. "JOHN BEAUCHAMP. It's spelled B-E-A-U ... The U doesn't get pronounced, and the P at the end is silent ..."

JOHAN did not like the explanation. "That's too complicated," he said. "No one is going to get that name right! Mr. Peachy, that's better. Your name is Mr. Peachy!"

That drew plenty of laughs from the cabin. What kind of dork name was Mr. Peachy? How was I going to make any friends at this place with a tall South African calling me Mr. Peachy? Guess what - it stuck. JOHAN was proud of the name, and he made a point of yelling it at me from no matter what distance. Soon it wasn't just JOHAN, but every kid in the Indian division knew me as Mr. Peachy.

What surprised me was that kids soon considered the name fun because JOHAN advertised it with that booming personality and accent. I became Campfire Lighter that year - and it was no doubt largely due to the attention I got from the once embarrassing name. JOHAN - wherever you are - thanks for the name and the early taste of fame.

Make Others Feel Welcome

At home I refer to this one as the "MARK STEVENSON Rule." After my first year at Inks Lake, I switched to Indian Springs for a three-year stint. At age 13, I switched back to Inks Lake. That was a tough age for a change. I knew that I would settle-in to my new cabin after a few days. But I also understood I would be the new kid for a while - an outsider trying to create bonds with kids who had been in the same cabin for years.

As the bus from San Antonio pulled onto the baseball field at the boys' camp, I looked out the window hoping to see friendly faces. As I got off the bus, I was assigned to the Marlin cabin. The counselor (JOHN SOPER) was clapping, but the campers were ambivalent - with one exception. MARK STEVENSON broke ranks, walked straight up to me, and extended a hand. "I'm MARK STEVENSON from Dallas. Welcome to the cabin."

It was a confident, friendly, and unexpected gesture. MARK and I are still friends, but we don't get to see each other often. When we do - I tell him that his name lives in lore at the BEAUCHAMP house. For years I have preached to my daughters - it's not what you say that people will remember - it's how you make them feel. I then remind them of the time MARK welcomed me to the Marlin cabin.

My girls got to meet MARK at 1st Term V-Day this year. After we met they turned to me and said, "You know what Dad? He really is a nice guy."

Attaway to go MARK

Practice What you Preach

Any counselor who ever coached baseball at camp knows the rule - never walk behind a player with a bat in his hands. In the summer of 1984, I was a young counselor coaching baseball. Many times I would coral campers as they walked behind players with a bat on deck.

"Never walk behind a player with a bat in his hand!" Over and over and over I would repeat this. As the season was coming to an end, my team was doing well. The better we did, the more competitive I became. Instead of watching out for safety, I grew more concerned about whether the players were in position or whether I had the right pitcher on the mound for the situation at hand.

At some point in one of the last games of the season, I saw something on the field I didn't like. In the gusto of the moment I made a quick move off the bench to make my point on the field. My focus was the pitcher's mound - not the on-deck batter in front of me. Just as I was making a move past the camper, he took a great practice cut. The aluminum bat caught me just below the ribs.

I swear I've never felt pain that intense. I was on the ground choking for air, but nothing came. "I think I'm going to die," was all I thought as the counselors and campers raced over to me. I truly could not get air - but I was aware enough to hear one of my players take the cheap shot. "HEY COACH, you know you're never supposed to walk behind a player with a bat." Well played kid. Lesson learned.

These stories are wonderful, JOHN BEAUCHAMP. Funny, funny! I have laughed and chuckled everytime I read your "Life Lessons"!! Each story has a special lesson . . . Goes from Mr. Peachy to changing terms from Springs to Inks and MARK STEVENSON's unexpected actions that you so vividly remember . . . I didn't know RAY could swim that far but glad you'all made it back to land .. and what a priceless incident when you coached a camp baseball team! JOHN grew up in San Antonio and lives there now with wife COURTNEY and children EMILY (13) and next summer will be her 7th year at CLH Inks Lake . . . GRACE (12) and next summer will be her 5th year at Inks Lake. COURTNEY DREYER BEAUCHAMP, JOHN's wife, is a CLH alumnus and owns a retail store in San Antonio. JOHN is in Real Estate Development. He was a camper eight years and a counselor another five years . . . all at Inks Lake. He was a Campfire Lighter in 1977 as a camper and voted Favorite Counselor by the campers in 1990. Always a favorite here at camp, JOHN graduated from the University of Texas. Thank you again, JOHN for your "Lesson Learned" . . . Funny, funny and so much fun to read!

Why Kids Should Go To Camp . . . The Many Gifts That Are Waiting

By WENDY CANALES ARSHAM

WENDY CANALES ARSHAM
w/children SARITA
ARSHAM and
MARK ARSHAM

V-Day!

I call it “my Christmas” and explain to my children, that’s exactly what it feels like when I get my kids back! Camp Longhorn is special to me on MANY different levels: From singing/humming TAPS to my babies as I rocked them to the excitement of running over the hill-to-scoop them up on V-Day!

MANY MANY YEARS AGO:

As a child, it allowed me to get off a secluded ranch and it gave me independence. I knew it was gift then. I knew it was financially and also social/emotionally for myself. I had NO idea how it would play into my personal life or my career.

10 PLUS YEARS AGO:

As a mother, I wanted my children to go off to camp. I wanted them to experience and grow from the length of time away from home. I wanted them to have a whole new experience from school. I wanted them to share the same term as their out of town cousins.

I am an educator and I knew the importance of this experience. I even wanted them to go a different term than their usual friends from school. I knew this would force a little growth outside of the box and kids now need that.

I watched my niece and nephew go off. We went on V-day, my kids in tow, to pick them up. They proudly wore hand-me-down CLH uniforms and tried to blend in and sneak in with activities. They couldn’t wait to go. I wanted them to go - I know I needed 2 weeks off and-they went the earliest CLH would take them. It was a gift I worked at financially, but I knew it was priceless.

It was an easy sell, they had gone to many V-days. They never got cold. feet. I prepared them as best I could for being homesick. I told them the truth, it may hit and if it does - totally normal. It only happens at quiet time or bedtime, when you’re mind wanders and time slows. Homesick just means - you love your family and your home. There’s nothing wrong with that and frankly if you don’t just a little - well I would be a little worried.

We talked about that a lot and they did get a little homesick. They told me about it in letters. We discussed when they returned and even again before going off the next year. We also discussed that this is what our family does in the summer. We were committing and it wasn’t just for one year. Knowing and remembering the fun outweighed the little bits of homesickness was the take away.

Gift #1:
PERSERVERANCE

I helped them pack. That’s a lie - the first year I packed FOR my eldest. Rookie mistake! When she returned and I saw she didn’t even use one side of her trunk, the next year she packed it all herself. She can read just fine, it’s her trip and she knows what she needed or wanted, where to pack it all better than me. My kids pack their trunks and make a list of what’s needed from the store. (i.e.: batteries, new fan, toiletries etc)

Gift #2:
SELF SUFFICIENCE

From then on out - they packed for their own trips. I merely wrote on a sticky bare bones what they needed. (3 days’ worth of shirts/shorts, tennis shoes, bathing suit, church clothes etc)

They learned to make new friends. These friendships are different. They aren’t classmates, everyone is without parents, you have to connect to each other and it’s not just for a day. This deal is day in and day out for a couple of weeks, so this is a new skill. These connections are not just in the cabins, but many are out of the city and state we live in. They didn’t realize how special this was until recently in their teen years and especially now that one is getting ready to go off to college.

Gift #3
CONNECTIONS

They are at ease at dances. They don’t stand and watch, they get out and dance. They will ask others to dance, dance with friends and they don’t care who is watching. They notice some of their friends from school freeze up at dances and have figured it out. Those kids are nervous because they didn’t grow up with counselors “making you dance for a merit mom!”

Gift #4 -
DANCES ARE FUN

And now as a Head of Lower School and Early Childhood:

Parents ask me all the time, I’m so worried about if my child is ready when is the best time for a them to go off to camp? Same answer, “End of second grade and if they are older than that- NOW! GET THAT APPLICATION IN!”

Parents want to prepare their kids for camp! I ask them, “What for?” Camp is about the experience, THEIR experience, not yours as a parent. It is a time to put what they know about life to work, but in a super fun way.

Tell your kids, “Pack your trunk, take your smile, use your manners and have fun - mom and dad will be at V-day with big squeezes.” When that child returns, you will see the growth in them. They will have survived a little homesickness, made new friends, problem solved, maybe gotten in trouble, probably missed a couple of baths and teeth brushing, BUT lived - and all on their own!

Gift #5++++
RESILIANCE

Children now more than ever need these experiences. Parents now more than ever have a harder time letting kids experience life without preparedness. Camp Longhorn allows this growth in independence combined with the safety of guided activities. We have to let go more often and allow them to find their way! Let them use the skills you as parents have taught them to be a camper and go and do a couple of weeks away from home. Let them go! Let them try! Let them know you’re proud of them! Let them miss you! Let them feel some real life. Let them go ... Let them LIVE!

WENDY CANALES ARSHAM, what a great story! I suggest all that are just starting out at CLH with campers, read your article! SO TRUE! PERSERVERANCE . . . prepare your campers for homesickness; SELF SUFFICIENCE .. Let your kids pack their own trunks. Your role is a bare bones sticky of what they need. CONNECTIONS . . . Learning to make new friends. These friends are not for a day but a couple of weeks around the clock! Campers don’t realize how important this is until they are ready, perhaps, to leave for college. DANCES ARE FUN . . . Your .kids learn to dance at camp. Don’t care who is watching . . . Those kids are nervous because they didn’t grow up with counselors “making you dance for a merit mom!” RESILIANCE . . . WENDY is Head of Lower School and Early Childhood so she is frequently asked . . . when is the best time for kids to go off to camp? Always same answer, “End of second grade and if they are older than that . . . NOW! GET THAT APPLICATION IN!” Such a great article and I could go on and on . . . GREAT READING! . . . WENDY grew up as a ranch kid from Premont (south of Alice) and came to camp 4th Term Inks Lake for 4 years back when 4th term was only 1/2 or 2/3 full. She and husband JEFFREY live in Houston with their children SARITA ARSHAM (17), from Wren and now a Counselor; MARC ARSHAM (15) from Cabin 0 and 2020 he will be a Ranger from Inks Lake. WENDY is Head of Lower School and Early Childhood School . . . an all boys Catholic School. She graduated from TCU. Thank you again, WENDY for sharing your . thoughts with us! WELL DONE!

Camp Longhorn Is Building A Fountain For Success For All Of Us

By DOUGLAS TOOLE, III

What an honor I have never written an article before I'm not a writer and not clever with words. However Camp Longhorn is such an amazing place and what it has done for my family inspired me to give this writing thing a try.

I'll start by telling you about my mother. My mother is the kindest, sweetest, most caring person on the planet. Anyone who knows her or has ever met her would tell you just that!

My mother also has a love for shooting guns, fishing, sailing, horseback riding, and strong family and friendship values. She did not have a father and her mother worked two jobs to support the family. Much of who I am came from my mother.

I am an amazing Father and I can build fix just about anything. I'm a great shot and a wonderful partner to my beautiful girlfriend. I take better care of my friends than I do myself. I have a heart of gold and almost always put everyone before myself. I only mention these things because I learned most of it from my mother and father, and I will give you one guess how my mother became to be such an amazing woman.

My mother lived a simple life growing up, never had much, however she did attend Camp Longhorn every summer as a child and every summer as counselor. I know in my heart and I know because my mother has told me how much Camp Longhorn shaped her life.

My mother didn't have a father as I mentioned before. Camp Longhorn taught her how to fish, shoot guns, build fires, make beds, sail, ride horses. Camp Longhorn was her father.

My mother learned how important good friends and family values are through CLH and she carried those values all through her life. You could not meet a person who could say one negative thing about my mother. Thank you CLH for producing one of the most amazing humans on this planet.

I truly believe all that she learned through CLH was directly responsible for what a great mother and friend she is today and made my sister and I the people we are today.

My sister wow, my sister is the epitome of super woman, amazing wife, mother, friend, rock star at her career! My sister is the most impressive person I know. Everyone she meets is somehow benefited from knowing her. She is a true treasure.

My sister does so much for the community and her beautiful family. It is very impressive and I'm sure I don't know the half of what she does as we live in different cities. My sister also has a love for the outdoors and doing fun things. She is also the best friend to many many women out there. I know, I know, kind of repetitive, however guess where she learned those skills; if you said CLH you were correct.

Again my sister attended CLH every summer as a camper and every summer as a counselor. Again I feel the values and skills she learned at CLH gave her a huge advantage in life. Cheerleader, journal club, all advanced classes during high school! Graduates with honors and attends both Vanderbilt and UT for college! Instantly recruited out of college for a huge position at a huge company. The perfect life, the perfect mother, and supportive friend to so many. She is amazing!

My sister now has three little girls and yes they are all going to CLH and they will all come out of CLH with the same amazing skills the rest of my family learned. Those three girls will go on to become amazing mothers, wives, hard workers, and a life full of friends who truly value them as friends because of the values of friendship you learn at CLH.

Now my true passion for CLH will be told. I suffer from dyslexia and ADHD. I have had a difficult life, lots of frustration and behavioral issues. There was just not enough known about my learning disabilities at the time to really help me. I had hard time making friends and my self-esteem was low for a long time.

CLH was something I regret messing up. I have a strong passion for water and sailing. It's one of the best parts of my life as I look back at all my years. The best times I've had have been on the water. It calms me down and I'm really good at it. It has helped me get out of my shell and many of my good friends I have are because of times on the water. You guessed it, I learned how to sail and fish and love the water at CLH.

What I meant about messing it up is I only attended CLH a few years and it was all my fault. No need to go into specifics but if I could restart my life or tell my parents one thing to have done different it would have been to MAKE me go through the whole course of CLH as a camper and becoming a counselor.

Here comes the passion part of the story, I know you have been patiently waiting for this. I truly believe my sole purpose on this planet is my son! The love I have for this child cannot be measured in any way. My son suffers from the same learning disabilities, dyslexia and ADHD, as I. It makes his life difficult in many of the same ways it did does mine. I do all that I can for him.

His school is amazing and he is doing well. I work hard to instill in him friendship values, how to be a good friend, how important it is to be a good friend. My son is kind, loving, and funny, a gifted wake boarder, snow skier and great on a dirt bike and an amazing shot!

My son is a wonderful boy. He amazes me and impresses me constantly. However my son also is shy and self-esteem is low most of the time. He says he can't do something before even trying. But you know what? Now four years in at CLH, it is all he talks about! Half way through the school year he is asking when is camp, when is camp!

When I get on the CLH website and I see that joy in his eyes and I know he is learning all the skills my mother and sister learned there, it warms my heart and it thrills me to no end knowing he is developing, learning, growing, changing, progressing, and all those skills and values that made my sister and my mother so amazing are being instilled in him. Words just cant express the gratitude I have for all of that!

I can remember CLH as a camper and I can remember what an amazing place it was. I can remember all the fun I had and all the things I learned, all the wonderful kids and the food. When I think of my childhood CLH was some of the very best memories. I wish I stuck it out and continued as a camper and became a counselor!

My son is only 10 and he speaks frequently about becoming a Ranger and wanting to be a counselor at CLH and I cannot put into words what an amazing feeling that is. I am so proud of him for sticking with, enjoying and learning at CLH.

I know that CLH will be pivotal in his development. I know that CLH will build his confidence, erase his shyness, teach him life long friendship and family values that will make him 10 times the man I am. I can't thank CLH enough for what they do for my son! Every year he comes back stronger, more focused, sweeter, more willing to try and do new things, friendlier, happier, more confident, more self sufficient, and shows more passion for life and his self esteem, wow, each year it's like a different kid comes home!

CLH builds up that self-esteem and helps these kids conquer their fears and makes them men/women and the best part is they don't know it; they are having the times of their lives.

CLH is saving my son's life one summer at a time! Turning him into the young man I cannot wait to meet! The young man that is going to continue to amaze me, impresses me, and have more friends than I could ever imagined having. The values and skills he is going to have will lead him through life on the right path, and put the world at his feet!

This is such a great story, DOUGLAS TOOLE! It's about your MOM, SIS-TER, son JD and YOU and what Camp Longhorn has done for each of you. Your Mother grew up without a father and Grandmother worked two jobs to support the family. Your mother was lucky enough to come to CLH every summer as a camper and then counselor. You give credit to Camp for teaching her sooo many valuable things to make her the person she is. You thank CLH for producing one of the most amazing humans on this planet! You count your Sister as a super woman and she has three girls that come to Camp Longhorn Indian Springs. DOUG suffers from dyslexia and ADHD and had a difficult time at Camp. He wishes now that his time at Camp could have been different. HE LOVES THIS PLACE! And now, his son JD has been to CLH Indian Springs for the last three years. DOUG is so proud of him for enjoying and learning at CLH. DOUG sez every year he comes back stronger, more focused, sweeter, more willing to try and do things, friendlier, happier and more confident. HOW PROUD DOUG is of his son JD. DOUG was a camper for one or two years and wishes now that he had come back to be a counselor. He grew up in Houston and now calls Austin home! DOUG is involved in Real Estate Investing. His son, JD TOOLE (10) has been a camper at Indian Springs for the last three years. DOUG mentions again that SIS and MOTHER had max years at Camp as a camper/counselor. We thank you, DOUG, for your family story and what Camp has meant to each person. You tell a beautiful story!

The Best Place On Earth . . . Camp Longhorn

By GINGER GRINSFELDER GREENBERG

As I recall my childhood and work to keep these memories intact to tell my children - the details are often fuzzy. However, I can say with sincere clarity that my memories of CLH are not only not fuzzy, but they are crystal clear.

I don't know for sure why I remember CLH more than I do other things. I can only suspect that it was because they were only my memories, and not framed by parents, teachers or friends from school. Camp for me was independence and freedom - my memories were mine and only mine.

After rocking my babies to sleep with the same repertoire of Campfire songs, I was so happy when my son was able to attend camp and hear these songs for himself at an actual campfire. He now had the chance to make his own crystal clear memories- and he did. He's now been joined by his sister at C3.

My hope for my children and their camp adventure is that they can just soak in all of the delicious camp goodness and make memories that belong only to them.

I am so grateful to the CLH family for creating, maintaining and promoting such a wonderful, nurturing environment for me, my children and hopefully many generations to come. The stories my kids love to hear me tell the most often involve CLH. Now, they can share their own stories with me, and I can relish in them.

Attaway CLH. Keep up the good work making excellent memories! We need more goodness in the world.

what a special story. Sharing your memories of Camp Longhorn with your children and now your children can share, probably, most of those same memories and what a beautiful bond to have with COPELAND and ANNABELLE! Someday they will be able to share their memories with their children. And, what a great message . . . "Camp for me was independence and freedom- my memories were mine and only mine." Growing up in Dallas, GINGER came to Indian Springs for seven years as a camper and two more years as a counselor. She grew up in Dallas and lives there now with husband CLAYTON and their children COPELAND (11) and this coming summer will be his 4th year at CLH Indian Springs; ANNABELLE (8) and this coming summer will be her 2nd year at CLH Indian Springs. GINGER is Managing Director/Counsel and CLAYTON is an attorney. As a camper, GINGER was a Campfire Lighter, Top Miler, Favorite and Marina General . . . a few of her many responsibilities. As a counselor, she was in charge of Marines/Marinas as their General and also in charge of canoeing!! GINGER is a graduate of the University of Missouri (Bachelors) and Texas A&M School of Law . . . She would like to mention again that she is so happy to share Longhorn with her kids - it makes her so fulfilled. And your story of kids, love, memories and Camp Longhorn is a special story that is so rewarding to read! THANK YOU, GINGER GRINSFELDER GREENBERG!

REID UMSTATTD

POCKETS OF CLOUDS

REID UMSTATTD, a member of the band Nelo, a rock band from Austin a little over 10 years, stepped out on his own with the encouragement of many people. He thought his days as a musician were behind him but slowly it started to become clear that music was what he needed. He thought jumping back into music the best way possible was low key as possible - on national television in front of 10 million people on The Voice in 2018.

He made it to the live show rounds and left with a lot to think about. The show taught him and gave him so much, but the biggest thing was confidence and inspiration to start writing music on his own for the first time.

The songs on "Pockets of Clouds" are from the first group of tunes he wrote after leaving the show.

With lots of help from great people along the journey not least of all HIS WIFE, who sings on "We Belong Together" was his source of confidence, light, and POSITIVITY throughout this entire long trip.

REID was a 3rd Term Camper at CLH Inks Lake .. 1991-2001!

HIGHLIGHTS TO REMEMBER . .

-Written in Austin, Nashville and Muscle Shoals Alabama

-Recorded in Austin

-Debut solo EP release, following stint on The Voice in spring 2018.

Thank you, REID UMSTATTD for sharing this wonderful information about "POCKETS OF CLOUDS" and, an amazing journey leading up to the release!

THANK YOU BRUCE GRANT!

A great artist, BRUCE was a camper & counselor for many, many years at Inks Lake. Every few years he catches up with new cabin signs and we love them!

THANK YOU AGAIN BRUCE GRANT!

MADDIE SPELLER, age 12, and this coming summer will be her 6th year at Indian Springs, carved this wonderful pumpkining all by herself!

Great job, MADDIE!

A True Sportsman

A TRUE SPORTSMAN

This is RICK WITTENBRAKER and he lives the outdoor life whether he is in the field, on the water, or at his desk. He is chief marketing manager for Howler Brothers, an outdoor apparel brand based in Austin.

Rick loves the outdoors and has grown up with it. He says it doesn't matter, whatever the mission of the day is, it's more about the day or the experience and everything one learns along the way. He also talks about being a really good outdoorsman one learns more about the plants, weather patterns, etc . . . opposed to just trying to get a trophy for their wall or some awesome picture for their Instagram feed!

RICK is the father of three and he shares his love for the outdoors with his kids like his parents did with him. His son is 11 and loves to fish and camp so that means more time for RICK to go do it and be with his son!

RICK WITTENBRAKER

RICK was many, many years a camper and counselor at Inks Lake and an active CLASP Member! Son, OSCAR, is a camper and this coming summer will be his 5th summer at Inks Lake ..

Our Hero!

HUDSON BENNETT

Our hero! . . . HUDSON is an incredible Cross Country man! He is a freshman in high school this year running against all grades including seniors and last weekend was the 4A Regional CC Champion. This is an unbelievable accomplishment and it qualified him for the state meet. He ran a tough, smart race to win his 8th meet of the season and ran the 3 1/4 miles last weekend in 16.21.

While running, HUDSON had a slight injury and it will take a month to heal which will keep him out of the state meet. We are all, for sure, saddened but know that he still has 3 years of high school and, knowing HUDSON, will never let up.

He's already our hero and just think what he will be in 4 years! And, what college he picks to run track!! HUDSON is the son of Alumni DAVID and STACY ROBERTSON BENNETT, grandson of JOHN & DONNA ROBERTSON and great grandson of TEX & PAT ROBERTSON. He is a 2nd Termer at Inks Lake and summer of 2020 will be his 8th year! GRACYN is older sister and HAYS is younger brother!

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU HUDSON . . .

CARNIVAL MEMORIES

First CLH Carnival in Coleman, TX

An early, early Camp Carnival and the first one in Coleman, TX was in the carport of the BROWNING'S! TEX nicknamed daughter BETTY BROWNING, BOOP, wrote it on the hat (pic. included) and gave it to her at the Carnival! She remembers getting a hat and uniform each year and she still has her "racing" swim suit! (remember those?!!) She says DODO GARCIA was never in her cabin but an excellent swimmer! She also remembers SUSAN TALLEY, TRIGGER MILLER, JULIE MELTON, CHRIS WOOLLEY, ANN LANGE and CINDY SMITH (Coleman).

What great memories, BETTY BROWNING SMITH! She was at Inks Lake '58 - '64. Her brother BUZ BROWNING was never a camper (a big regret later in life) but did come to Inks Lake as a counselor. All three of BETTY's boys, QUINT, CHRIS and MARC FOSTER were all campers and their children have all been campers (with the exception of MARC's) They are future campers when old enough!

BETTY is a very active member of CLASP and we see her for sure V-Days when her grandkids are here! Thanks for the memories, BETTY!

Subject: THANK YOU!

Dear Nan,
As looked through last nights photos of camp I saw this photo of Maggie. I immediately teared up as I saw the pure joy on Maggie's face. (Happy Birthday to Maggie- the best birthday party a girl could have) It reminded me that every extra hour of overtime I put in and the nights I have to travel away from home for work are all worth it!! Thank you Camp Longhorn for instilling strong values, creating the most incredible memories and friendships that will last a lifetime! Maggie looks forward to camp all year long. We are excited for our youngest daughter, Eve, to be part of all the magic Camp Longhorn brings. (1 more summer after this one!) Thank you for all that you and CLH do! We look forward to seeing everyone Saturday!
Cheers!

Echoes Of Camp Longhorn Continue To Reverberate To This Day

By KELLY PERKINS RIGAS

There are so many memories of Camp Longhorn and I am honored to be asked by HELEN to write some of them, bear with me as I try to stay focused and get a fraction of it on paper.

My memories of Camp Longhorn are amazing, and it's remarkable that everyone I know that attended or has kids that went shares the same wonderful experience.

Growing up on Lake Austin I thought I'd seen everything cool on a lake and oh how wrong I was. Camp Longhorn was so much more more everything.

I wanted a blob and a floating cabin and thought it was the coolest thing ever. The water sock, the sail boats, old facefull, all the acronyms and the new names. Just like every other camper, on Vday I was not ready to go home.

Some of those cabin mates are friends still, SHANNON PHILLIPS MERONEY and I saw each other last weekend at a charity Gala chaired by

KAREY NALLE ODDO.

My camper experience was wonderful, I loved the girls in our cabin and all the new friends. Every aspect of camp from the Merit system to the swim bay, ski bay, water socks, the petting zoo, blobbing, chow hall, riflery and sail bay. Night raids were so cool, you almost felt like you were a SEAL except for the giggling.

Blowing your entire head of hair dry in four minutes at the huge fans at PAT and TEX's house was the coolest thing ever and I have been known to walk around the side of my house to the air compressor in my robe to get the Camp Longhorn blowout. Did I mention my kids thought I was crazy?

I remember thinking JOHNNY ROB was bigger than life, we were all totally scared of him but admired him too. Having JOHNNY yelling at you as a Marina is not something you would think would be a good experience except a decade later when you are being yelled at on a trading desk in the early 90's and you are thinking, "you're so not scary ... General JOHNNY ROB was scary!"

The counselors in girls camp were convinced that BILLY, JOHNNY and ROBBY were everywhere, hiding in the trees, watching every move, all knowing. Making sure we were both safe and not stepping out of line. I keep forgetting to ask them if they had spy stations because at breakfast each morning they seemed to always have every detail of the night before.

TEX and PAT felt like another set of grandparents who immediately knew your name, everyone seemed to know your name. It's one of the ways that you immediately felt special at Camp Longhorn. I make an effort to remember people's names when I meet them as one of those echoes from camp. I could win Name tha today I swear.

I have met so many amazing people at Camp and through Camp and those friends have a common thread, the spirit of Camp Longhorn. For several summers I did two or three terms as a counselor and met campers and counselors from all over the state and country. Over the last 30 years I have run into Camp friends in an elevator in NYC and in Dallas, the top of a mountain in Colorado, JOHNNY ROB in an airport in Mexico, football games, schools and parent teacher conferences.

During those summers the counselors would have a 24 hour break between terms, too far to go home and return, many would come to Austin with me. My parents lake house is an hour from camp on Lake Austin and has hosted hundreds of counselors over the years. Imagine 40 counselors piled in a 1,200 square foot lake cabin, six girls in a king-sized bed, people on couches, floors and even the dock.

ANDEE RUSSELL would wake at 6 a.m. and run "screeching like a bird" through the house and past all the sleepers, then outside, down the pier and straight off the top of the dock into the water. One morning I'm pretty sure he tripped over JACK INGRAM who was sleeping on the dock.

I enjoyed seeing ANDEE for years in Dallas when our kids attended the same school. Still calling him "Cousin Ang" and enjoying our memories of camp. I was an eye witness to the "Rappelling incident" where JOHNNY GRIFFITHS and I think DUNCAN FRASIER attempted to bare hand climb the ropes up the rappelling tower. Watching him slide down and the burns to his hands is not something you can forget.

JOHN is a friend in Dallas and I still give him grief for first the burns then going to fight the fire in Pig City barefooted. He of course gives me grief for the a sail dock and destroying Green Sail sunfish with Deck Boat #5, the details of which shall remain at CLH.

I am lucky to call so many CLH alums friends, My neighbor JULIANNA ADAMS LEBLANC and I have a combined seven kids and many of them are in the same grades and classes. NIKKI NELSON WEBB has four children and we coordinate a post V-day lunch for the crew at "the lake house" which is much nicer now that my parents actually live there.

ROBERT BLACK also brings his family after V-day, he is one of the BBB, not the Better Business Bureau but the Black Brothers from Beaumont; WILL "GRANDPA" BLACK, ROBERT and JOHN BLACK are all characters and worth knowing. COURTNEY GREGORY DENBY and I loved being counselors and she lives in the neighborhood. RANDY TOUCHSTONE and his family live a few blocks away. He, MIKE BLALOCK, RHETT MILLER and AMY BERG all came to the ball in Austin when I was presented.

MIKE's sister KELLY BLALOCK came up with an amazing idea last year, a "KELLY, KELLEY, KELLIE Party" where you could only come if your name was KELLY. I met 40 KELLY's that night. I call that CLH creativity. Deserves it's own award.

Before my daughter MORGAN's first day of school in first grade, we went to "Meet the Teacher" and were looking forward to meeting MRS. STANFORD. Imagine my surprise that it was JILL GORDON a fellow counselor and camper and friend. MORGAN had the best year ever. JILL is an amazing teacher and that's another wonderful echo of Camp Longhorn, outstanding people!

One of my closest friends from camp was RHETT MILLER. We both loved water skiing and back at UT enjoyed getting out on the lake almost daily. RHETT was incredibly funny and had a lightning fast wit. RHETT could do the most amazing RAY FRADY imitation and would talk in "the voice" for hours.

RHETT was one of my favorite people and well liked by all that knew him. One beautiful day in May in 1991 I was packed up and ready to head out to the lake house from campus. I was waiting on RHETT to pick me up. I was irritated that he was now 45 minutes late.

When the phone finally rang, it was his roommate, I told him they were late he told me he was at Brackenridge and that RHETT and his girlfriend had been in a car accident and RHETT didn't make it. Even now writing this it still puts a lump in my throat. I still miss him and wish he had the joy of sending children to Camp Longhorn or getting married or going to mini-camp.

Maybe no one intended to, and maybe it's a coincidence but the number of children named RHETT in the last 25 years by people that knew him is really high. At V-day this year it was a pleasure to stand with his sister CAMILLE, remembering RHETT. As tears ran down our cheeks I knew he was there. Always a Longhorn Man RHETT, you are dearly missed.

Camp As a Parent

Sending my first child NICHOLAS to Camp six years ago was a bit tough the first year as he had a broken arm. ROGER assured me lots of kids come to camp with something broken. Turns out finding him in the "proof of life" photos online is super easy because of the neon green cast. I was excited, knowing that he would get to experience all the wonders of Camp from the very beginning in CABIN ZEEERO (Say in Robby Rob voice).

Running to his cabin on my first V-day as a parent was so special, turns out most of his counselors were Legacies and I knew their Dad's or Uncles! Counselor WILSON MILLER, son of JOHN MILLER, is a favorite ... and NICHOLAS' new favorite camp friend MURPHY it turns out is the son of is BRANDY MURPHY LEE, a favorite friend and co-counselor of mine!

NICHOLAS never questioned going to camp. I began taking him to Carnival when he was a toddler. I thought everyone said "Napkin check" at every meal, and had a "Merit Food." It worked at Camp and it worked well at home with my kids too. I overheard him say to a friend who asked him which camp he would attend and he said "We are Camp Longhorn People" and I love that cause it's true!

My daughter MORGAN followed NICHOLAS to camp the very next year declaring it was the BEST CAMP EVER. (She had actually wanted to go in 1st grade so she went to Ozark the prior year. I enjoyed seeing another Camp and she enjoyed it too ... but it just wasn't Camp Longhorn).

V-day was a reunion. Most of MORGAN's Wren cabin were the daughters of campers and counselors I had gone to camp with. How fun to see SARA KUBIKI, KRISTIN URBAN KEMMETT, JEN FETNER BOOTH, AMY BOYD RUDD, BECCA UNDERWOOD DICKERSON, HAILEY ETHRIDGE BECHTOL and ANNAMARIE FALVO BETZ. Love the Longhorn Legacy effect

My youngest child ELLISON was an only child for three years in the summer for three weeks while her brother and sister attended second term. Immediately upon arrival home from camp drop off she would give me the packet she had made of all the things we were going to do over the next three weeks. It was five pages long single spaced in crayon, she was 5, it was impressive. Needless to say she saw camp as an "opportunity" just a bit different than imagined. She started hedging her attendance at camp from the beginning. I told her "Honey this is what our people do, we go to Camp Longhorn, you will love it and will never want to come home."

When she got her early bird we celebrated but she still was worried she'd be homesick. I explained that she would be so busy at camp she wouldn't have time to be homesick and Camp is a family too, you will feel like it's home.

Parents are teary eyed in the parking lot and I'm jumping up and down cheering "Attawaytogo TO CAMP." Not going to sugar coat it, putting all three kids ages 8, 10 and 12 on the bus for three weeks was so wonderful I too had tears ... of joy. I know they are safe and happy and well cared for and there will be no calls or texts for three weeks!

Public Service Announcement (PSA 1): A big part of a camper's success is the parents attitude and confidence that Camp is the most amazing gift and you are so incredibly lucky to experience it!

The letters arrived daily with all the first time joys of Camp, "Mom, Camp is AWESOME, I'm having so much fun, the Blob is amazing and we get to go on a cookout tomorrow! I miss you, there is so much to do, see you on Vday!! Thank you for sending me to camp!"

PSA 2: Letters home from camp are as follows: Girls: 1st year DAILY, 2nd year: every other day, etc until about year five when it's "send me more batteries" (love the In Camp delivery now).

Boys: 1st year is about 2 letters a week IF you are lucky, 2nd year maybe one a week, and by the third year you are repacking the stationery still intact each year from thereafter. I still don't understand the parents and grandparents who complain about not receiving letters do you go on vacation and write letters everyday?!

Thank you Camp Longhorn, you made me a better person and shaped my perspective for the future and what's important. I believe the experience made me a better parent, friend, professional and teacher. I'm grateful my parents sent me to Camp Longhorn and that I am able to pass along the gift to my children.

The gifts of Camp Longhorn are the wonderful "echoes" that continue through our lives. Echoes of the lessons learned, the forever friendships and the common thread of all CLH'rs who have experienced the spirit of Camp Longhorn.

KELLY PERKINS RIGAS, what a beautiful story of your life at Camp Longhorn and after camp! You are a writer! It's all about lifelong friends one meets at Camp and the amazing things learned at camp! And, talking about RHETT MILLER who was killed in an auto accident, and a favorite here at camp is so rewarding. He was loved and is loved by ALL who knew him. Talking about JILL GORDON STANFORD, another favorite here at camp and what a great teacher she is. We remember JILL and she sends her twins to camp. The story about JOHNNY GRIF-FITHS and climbing wall . . sliding down w/out gloves . . who could forget that story. Lots of wonderful memories! KELLY, four years a camper and four years a counselor all years at Inks Lake grew up in Austin and now lives in Dallas! She is Managing Director of Perkins Wealth Management. She has lectured at the Cox School of Business for 14 years to MBA students, 26 of financial advising and seven years ago started her own company. Her Bio is so full of wonderful things she has done in the past and is doing now . . I don't know how she has time to sleep! KELLY has three camper children . . ELLISON RIGAS (10) and this coming summer will be her 3rd year at CLH Inks Lake; MORGAN RIGAS (12) and this coming summer will be her 6th year at CLH Inks Lake and NICHOLAS RIGAS (14) and summer of 2020 will be his 7th year at Inks Lake. When a camper, KELLY received the Skiing Award and Diving Award.. As a counselor she headed up skiing. KELLY attended the University of Alabama where she was a college letterman in waterskiing. She graduated from the University of Texas, Austin. WOW, KELLY, you are busy, busy, busy! Thank you sooo much for taking time from your schedule to jot down your thoughts. You wrote a great story and we thank you over and over again!

By MARJORIE LEDYARD TAYLOR

MARJORIE LEDYARD TAYLOR

I grew up in beautiful, flat, mesquite tree laden North Texas in a small town called Archer City. It's not too small because after all, it does have one blinking red light at the four way stop. As soon as I was old enough to drive I can't even recall the number of traffic tickets I received for rolling through that intersection. Now, it's referred to as the California roll because that's just what people do here in San Diego.

Camp Longhorn was such a luxury to look forward to every summer. In Archer City, my siblings AARON, SAMANTHA, CARLTON, and I found many ways to pass the time. We popped tar bubbles on the streets, swam all day long without sunscreen, played kick the can until dusk and caught numerous fire flies at night in the neighbor's yard.

During the school year, we walked endlessly (two and half blocks) to school and back then, it felt like an eternity. It's amazing how perspectives change as you grow older. Looking back on my amazing childhood, I wouldn't have wanted it any other way and am so fortunate to have had the opportunity to attend Camp Longhorn.

"Rise and shine be up and about. KP go to Chow" would screech across the morning loud speaker and was music to my ears. Why? Because I smelled endless mounds of bacon, couldn't wait to pile on the Captain Crunch, and go back for thirds on doughnuts if I was lucky. Oh, and I can't forget that delicious Tang. On top of that, where else can you go out to breakfast wearing baggy boxers, a slouchy t-shirt and no shoes?

With the hustle and bustle of the approaching end of school, I looked forward to Camp Longhorn as if it were a dream about to come true. Never before have I gained such amazing lifetime friendships from all over Texas and beyond.

CLH, A life filled with ice cream sticks smothered in peanut butter, oozy, gooey s'mores at Devil's watering hole, nightly campfires, hilarious skits, BOB TARTON's "Janie" stories that I never wanted to end, and movie nights with Herbie goes Bananas and um ... Herbie goes Bananas again.

One of the best aspects of Camp Longhorn was reconnecting to the life long friendships that were created on the shores of Inks Lake. MARIA McCULLOUGH VOGT, LISA BLOCK MATHERNE and I were cabin mates for all nine years as campers.

I was lucky to run into MARIA on V-day. She was and still is a hoot. She always had the biggest ghetto blaster/boom box and best mixed tapes. As the self-appointed cabin d.j. she carried that thing on her shoulders as we (all thirteen of us) walked to our activities, danced to the beat, and sang along to our favorite songs from artists MILLI VANILLI, GEORGE STRAIT, MADONNA and THE BEASTIE BOYS to name a few. At Carnival Night, MARIA made the best MADONNA impersonator ever and I have to say I was proud to be one of her back-up singers.

LISA BLOCK MATHERNE always had the coolest gothic makeup including black lipstick and glitter everything. The Summer we were in the Quail cabin, our counselors PATTI DUNN and LAURA BLACK helped us compose a remake of the song Paul Revere by the Beastie Boys to sing at our Campfire Sing Song. Through the years, that song continued to evolve and hit platinum status when I was a Marina counselor. KATIE KEY, MARIE ALICE CONNER and JEAN CONNER still continue to sing our version of that song 'til this day.

This past Summer, I had the opportunity to attend V-day to pick up Niece RUBY. I hadn't been back to CLH in 27 years! As I exited the car, I felt the wet grass against my feet (we don't have that in Cali), the sound of sprinklers were marching at a steady beat, and the cool breeze coming off the lake was mesmerizing as I took a deep breath and instantly went back to my childhood. Dance night, tacky night, gatoraids at pit-stop, multiple carnival marriages, hunting for snipers (only to come across a random cold watermelon ready to slice), tetherball competitions, and sailing regattas. All of these were a few of my favorite things.

Despite the sense of excitement in the air on V-day, there's was a calmness surrounding the camp, a feeling of old soul camaraderie. It's knowing that there still exists and will never be another place as special as Camp Longhorn.

MARJORIE LEDYARD TAYLOR . . . what a fun, fun, well written, and sooo interesting article you wrote! Like the "life in Archer City" and beyond .. Just a great story! Your description of CLH through the years is so true .. with Oozy, Gooey smores and all . . . sure brings back memories! You mention that in 1991 you and MARIA Mc-CULLOUGH VOGT wanted to stay all four terms as counselors and BILLY ROB said you'all could stay 4th Term if you patrolled the chow hall!! The names you mention of cabin mates and friends and all the different music you'all played is such a great part of Camp Life and so much fun to read about what you'all enjoyed when you were last here 27 years ago! MARJORIE, who has lived in San Diego, CA for 20 years, grew up in Archer City, TX! She was a camper nine years and counselor another four years. MARJORIE is a School Psychologist. She was at camp this past summer to pick up her niece RUBY HOLLINSHEAD, a 4th year camper from Dallas! MARJORIE was Sea

Gull Princess in 1986! And as a Counselor, she headed up Skiing and Pistolry. Colleges attended . . . Ole Miss, Midwestern State Univ., California State Univ. and Alliant International Univ . . . MARJORIE loves her surfing time in San Diego! Thank you, MARJORIE LEDYARD TAYLOR, for an outstanding writing! Come see us again next summer!

SWIM PARTY IN AUSTIN . . .

These are 2nd Term pre-camp campers attending a playdate party for those living in the Austin area. All five of these young men will be in cabin "0" or "1" (they are all finishing the 2nd grade) at Inks Lake. It's always nice to know someone before coming to camp and just to have a friend! Back (l-r) CAVEN MAJORS, HAMPTON EDGAR, HUDSON PARKS, WILL JARRETT and (f) GEORGE ANDERSON.

Welcome!

ZAC NEELY has joined the Camp Longhorn family at Indian Springs. He is a 17 year veteran with 7 years as a camper and another 10 years as a counselor . . . and he wore many hats . . .

division head, director and a Ranger leader. He grew up in Lampasas, TX and then went on to graduate from Texas A&M Corpus. BRITTANY, a teacher, looks forward to being a part of camp with their sons RYKER (5) and NASH (2) in the summers. WELCOME TO THE CLH FAMILY!

An Attitude Of Gratitude Shapes Generations Of Family Campers

By CHELSEA RICHARDSON CHARLES and DIANA SCHNAKENBURG MEDDLES

From the picture came the realization ... We are all so lucky to be part of CLH!!!

The book end of the picture frame are DIANA SCHNAKENBURG MEDDLES (left) and CHELSEA RICHARDSON CHARLES, and between them are their legacies. In the insert is TERRY RICHARDSON, and how we all got on this path. Since we are co-writing this article, one in California and one in Indiana, we had to be creative about sharing our thoughts. Here it goes - welcome to a CLH interview in 2019.

When you think of passing things down from generation to generation, it's often times an object or a memento that was meaningful to a family member. At camp you get to pass down a legacy, which means all that camp has to offer.

Now, when a Rattlesnake or a Pony go to camp, they don't know what a legacy means, all they know is that they get off the bus, and the magic of camp begins! But the how, and why, is what makes Camp so special. So, the reason behind ALL the people in the frame being able to attend Camp, (young and the not so young), is because in 1955 TERRY RICHARDSON, and his siblings attended a Camp Longhorn Carnival at their elementary school in Waxahachie, Texas. Luckily, for all of us, he attend Inks Lake from 1955 to 1960, and is the reason we all got to, and get to go, to Burnet-durnet-can't-you-learn-it, Texas every summer!!

DIANA, how did you find out about CLH? Camp Longhorn found me! CHELSEA and JES-

TERRY RICHARDSON (CHELSEA RICHARDSON CHARLES FATHER) came to camp 64 years ago (1955 to 1960). This picture includes ... besides CHELSEA ... his grandkids that were at camp this past summer! It also includes DIANA SCHNAKENBURG's children. Please read the story to see the connection with CHELSEA and DIANA! (l-r) DIANA SCHNAKENBURG, OWEN ZAUSCH, WYATT ZAUSCH, ELAYNA ZAUSCH, CHARLOTTE HUNGATE, LILIAN ZAUSCH, MILES CHARLES, SPENCER CHARLES, ROSCO BRY and CHELSEA RICHARDSON CHARLES.

SE (RICHARDSON) had attended first term in 1986 at Ranch, and came back home to Indiana, telling us how much fun they had had at Camp! TERRY, their Dad, was always telling us great stories and he encouraged me to give Camp a try. TERRY was able to coordinate a phone interview for me. I remember being nervous about the interview!!

What are our kids' favorite parts about camp? Because, it is a family affair, we decided to include them all.

ELAYNA (17 years old) says the people and experiences are the best part! She is so grateful for the directors, counselors, and campers and their role in her personal growth. She feels that camp has helped shape the person she is today!

WYATT (15 years old) appreciates getting away from "the real world." He feels carefree at Camp, and loves time with his friends!

OWEN (12 years old) says he loves being with his Camp friends and going to ALL of their activities!

LILLIAN (14 years old) loves her cabin mates and friends. She says, "I know I'm only 14, but I know my Camp friends are lifelong friends."

CHARLOTTE's (10 years old) favorite parts of Camp are all of her friends, because everyone is so kind. And, the blob, because you can jump' so high!

ROSCOE (10 years old) loved the people! This was his first year, but he got to meet great friends and counselors. He is already preparing his sister LOIS to come to camp and join him and their cousins.

SPENCER (12 years old) loves jumping off the second tower and BLOBing. He loves that every year he gets to be with "his people."

When asking MILES (10 years old), he has three favorite activities at camp. First, he loves the BLOB ... because it's the BLOB. Next, he enjoys the lazy river, because it's relaxing. Finally, it's the trolley, because it gets him out of his comfort zone. That is an understatement. I have trolled at an Alumni camp, and as an adult it's crazy scary, make your palms sweat, high!

CHELSEA: Fondest memory of camp? There are so many, but one of my most memorable years was Marines and Marinas. You see the groups every year before you go, and when it's your year, and it's SO exciting. I also always marveled at the fact that when you got back to camp to see all your friends, it was like you just saw them yesterday. You'd gone a whole year not talking, and then you didn't miss a beat. ... Absolutely brilliant!

DIANA, what are your fondest camp thoughts? I have so many wonderful camp memories as a camper and counselor! It is not possible to choose just one favorite memory. My friends and counselors made Camp awesome! My favorite moments overall are the ones involving my own children reminiscing about Camp throughout the year in our kitchen/car/at school/etc, packing for camp, being at Camp, and Vday! Then, immediately retelling stories/adventures, and planning for camp, again, for the upcoming summer!

DIANA, what's your first memory about camp? My first Camp Memories are hilarious to me now. My parents did not quite understand that there would not be electricity, or that the libraries would be a quick stroll outside of the cabin. I jumped right in, but remember having some funny questions - both in my own head - and out loud to my sweet and patient counselors! I know my sister, MARGY is so thrilled to have been able to send her daughter, CHARLOTTE last summer to create her own first memories. She is even more excited that CHARLOTTE loved every minute, and now actively joins in the conversation with her cousins about Camp all year long.

CHELSEA, what makes it special to share with your kids? The best part is debriefing with your kids after camp (and all year long). My boys sharing all their stories, and me being able to follow them every step of the way. I love that camp has its own language, and I'm fluent in it, so when they start on a story I get it!! Not only that, but we get to compare then and now. The bonus for me is that my dad went, so that's an extra layer and connection they have with their grandpa. We have recently seen video of him at camp, and he gets to share it through his experience 64 years ago. There have definitely been a couple of changes between 1966 and 2019, but the camp essence is unchanging and unwavering.

TRuly, this is just a huge THANK YOU!!! A thank you to PAT and TEX for pulling this all together 81 years ago. Thank you to all their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren who are continuing on with all of the traditions, and creating new ones. Thank you to every CLASP member reading this who went themselves, send their children, and encourage their friends to go. What we love about camp is that it isn't just three weeks out of the summer, its 365 days of the year, and then multiply that by your Camp years! Camp is, without question, the best gift we were given, and that we now give our children! Thank you to TERRY for going to camp and extending an invitation to include us all in the Camp Longhorn family!

LOVE your article, CHELSEA and DIANA! How creative! It gets all your kids involved and your comments also! And, what a story! TERRY RICHARDSON, CHELSEA's Father, is the hero! It's with his suggestion that DIANA might attend CLH Indian Springs that has kept these wonderful families so close ... One in California and one in Indiana! They are truly a big part of the Camp

Don't Worry . . . I Go To Camp Longhorn . . . And I Got This

By KRISTIN MATTISON WALT

When HELEN first asked me to write a bit about what Camp means to me, I thought it wouldn't be a problem. I love reliving Camp memories when I run into fellow alumni or spend the afternoon catching up with good friends. Then, I sat down to actually do it. That is when it got hard. Not because I couldn't think of anything to say, but because I didn't think I could do it justice.

Last year at the Washington, DC Carnival, a family I was chatting with asked how I became a camper. "I'm not really sure," I think I mumbled. It was the first time I had really even thought about it. Camp was just a part of what our family did, and I'm not sure I really remember a summer growing up that didn't involve at least two weeks among the hills and dales!

In addition to many friends from school, I think half of our family descended on camp at the end of each summer! Neither one of my parents were campers, but my mom was a long-time teacher in Austin, and she knew there was a place on Inks Lake where her students spent the summer and came back to school more independent, polite, and excited to take on any challenge.

Sure enough, that summer after my second grade year, I found myself in a cabin with a group of 12 girls who would become the best part of my summer for the next nine years.

There was a core group of us who came back year after year. We were proud 4th termers . . . laid back, close-knit, and FAST in the water! We also had the privilege of closing out some of camp's great legends like the Super Slide, several year trips (the Jeep-a place where they could come back to every summer as we moved around the world, but also a place where they would learn all those great life lessons of Camp. Most importantly, we wanted them to feel like they are somebody.

Being a military family is kind of a weird gig, actually. We confuse everyone with our constant address changes, are asked to lead people we've just met, and quite definitely put that Mile Swim perseverance to the test! It wasn't a life I thought I was prepared for at first. I spent a great four years at Texas Tech, but never once did I venture into a business class! I didn't think I knew anything about managing people or projects, and least of all, how to be a leader in a community. Then, while laughing over a few beverages one day after a hard overseas move, one of my best Navy spouse friends (a Mystic girl, no less) said something to me that I will never forget.

"You went to Camp Longhorn. You got this."

As a young camper, I don't think I ever put much thought into what we were actually learning how to do. Being in a cabin with friends and learning new activities was fun. Oding in and out, KP, inspections . . . they just went with the territory. Later on as a counselor, I started putting the parts of it together. There were girls to keep track of, activities to teach, and Wrens to comfort when they were too scared to jump in the lake much less swim a mile.

It wasn't until much later on as a senior Navy spouse that I really realized how much I learned from all those summers at Camp. Recently, while speaking at a conference, I was asked my thoughts on how to be an effective leader. I stumbled for minute before I thought of what I had learned at Camp.

1. Treat everyone well. Everybody is somebody!
2. Perseverance pays off. There is nothing better than that first Mile Swim.
3. Attitude is everything. Attawayto!

My son, MASON, just finished up his 3rd year at Camp this past summer. Since he left school a bit early to attend 2nd term, I was a little worried about how he would do for those three weeks . . . but his V-Day smile said it all! He had a great term! Not only did he shave more than 10 minutes off of his Mile Swim time, but he also became quite the champion blobber, I hear.

This September, MA-

SON started his 4th elementary school. I had huge mom guilt since this time it was "my" fault. We moved about a mile up the street to a different neighborhood. I was worried he didn't know anyone, had yet another new place to figure out, and, as I would ask him to do, help his 1st grade brother with it all, too.

As I was going into my nervous mom mode on the first day of school, MASON left me speechless. "Mom, I got this. I go to Camp for three weeks, remember?"

KRISTIN MATTISON WALT, what a great writing! It's a great story all woven into a few paragraphs! I love your answer when asked how to be an effective leader. Treat everyone well; Perseverance pays off; and Attitude is everything! And, MASON's answer when .. starting a new school himself, and helping little brother conquer the first grade in that school! "MOM, 'I got this. I go to Camp for three weeks, remember?"

KRISTIN, born and raised in Austin was a camper 9 years and counselor 3 years at Inks Lake. She is a "stay at home Mom" and husband DAVID is a Naval Officer/ Navy Pilot. Children are MASON, 10, and next summer will be his 4th year at Inks Lake, and, NOLAN, 7, a future Apache! Her years as a camper, KRISTIN was a Campfire Lighter and Wrangler Favorite. She graduated from Texas Tech, BA in 2001 and Texas State, MA in 2005. Thank you again, KRISTIN, for such a great story!

A NEW FAMILY THAT LOVES CLH . . .

Subject . . THANK YOU To KERI MANNING WEAVER

Dear Keri,

I wanted to thank you so very much for all that you did to make the first two weeks of Camp Longhorn so wonderful and so successful!!

Our girls, Caitlin (Palomino) and Alexa Jones (Pony Up), had the absolute time of their lives!!! In fact, they both cried half way back to Houston saying "We just want to go back to camp . . . we are not ready to go home yet!"

After they stopped crying, they talked NON-STOP about their amazing time at camp and all of the wonderful new friends they made. New friends from other Houston schools, and Austin, Waco, and Dallas.

You may recall that they possibly wanted to go to Inks Lake, so I asked them about that topic. I asked, "So, would you still like to go to Inks Lake?? Or, return back to Indian Springs???" They both shouted at the top of their lungs, "INDIAN SPRINGS!!!!"

As a new family, we really did not know what to expect, but I can tell you that our expectations were far exceeded by your amazing staff, your loving counselors, and the sweet children that attended Indian Springs.

Our girls felt safe, loved, and they tried things they had never tried before in their life (example: broccoli- and she loved it!! It's a miracle!!)

Thank you again for the magic that Camp Longhorn started 80 years ago, and thank you to you and your family for continuing the tradition. You are touching children's lives, and as parents, we will be forever grateful.

Best wishes to you,

Ronda Jones

Mom to Caitlin and Alexa Jones

Back In The Saddle Again - Kelly Hale Follows His Love Of Horses

How many of you remember KELLY HALE aka Mr. Hoss who was a counselor and Horseback Director at Indian Springs from 1980 – 1988? One thing is certain – after his tenure at Camp Longhorn KELLY didn't just ride his horse into the sunset. While at camp, he was studying to become a dentist and maintained a long career in Austin putting beautiful smiles on faces – but that was really just his profession.

Throughout the years, KELLY has maintained his love for horses and enjoyed many different horse sports. At one time, he and a group of friends formed a Polo team called "Raising Hale" – he says its super fun and a very social sport. Not to mention very competitive! He has also competed in Western Reining, which originated from working cattle. Reining is often described as a Western form of English dressage, and judges the horse on its ability to perform a set of pattern movements. KELLY says it was through this type of riding that he became a much better and more in tune rider. It was on many vacations that Kelly flew to France, Italy, Spain and Africa to ride the native horses in those beautiful countries.

In 2008, KELLY sold his dental practice and was spending a lot of time on horses. When he was taking a short break from competing in 2011 he met his (now) wife, TRACEY. It was through her love of Montana that KELLY left Texas and moved to a small town called Red Lodge. Located in the Beartooth Mountain foothills, they've made Montana their permanent home.

Of course, neither love nor geography would keep KELLY away from horses. After moving to Montana, he joined a local fox hunting group (no kill) and hunted the beautiful mountains around Bozeman and hunted terrain in California, Nevada and Ireland. He says that fox hunting in Ireland is the most gorgeous but also the most dangerous – "the horses are big and the jumps bigger – and you always drink your whisky before you ride because once going you're holding on for your life". Oh dear – that KELLY.

In 2016, he joined a group of international riders and raced a 1,000 kilometers across Mongolia.

During this race, he rode an average of 75 miles per day for 9 days straight and finished with a great group of friends. According to KELLY, Mongolia is often compared to Montana minus the fences, roads and trophy homes. "It's an incredible country – Mongolians are natural horseman and the horses are tough. Tracey and I returned this past summer to camp and ride both horses and reindeer along the Russian border. Next trip I'd like to spend time riding and hunting with eagles as well as fly fishing", says KELLY. I get the sneaky feeling that he'll return again soon.

Back in Montana, he's riding with a trainer out of Sheridan, Wyoming. KELLY is both an English and Western rider, and he's now competing in English jumping on his Dutch Warmblood, Cartier. This past year he competed in Santa Fe and Denver – and who knows? He might be competing in Houston this spring.

If you ask TRACEY, she is told that if it is "for horses, about horses, or anything related to horses - there is no budget". KELLY says she's swindled some really nice jewelry out of him based on that belief.

As for me, one thing is certain – in the almost 40 years I've known KELLY, his love for horses and anything equestrian hasn't changed. We are so proud of you KELLY. Come see us soon and bring your infectious laughter and passion to those who love you at Camp Longhorn!

IN MEMORIAL . . .

ANDREW DARBY, age 56, passed away Aug. 3, 2019. A talented artist, he lived in New York City for several years and sold many of his paintings, concentrating on abstract and contemporary paintings. ANDREW was a popular camper at Inks Lake for 8 years and a counselor 3 years. This is a great picture of him when he was KING 3rd Term 1973 at Inks Lake! His home was in Greenville, TX.

DREW THIEMAN, age 28, passed away January 30, 2019. She loved her family, incredible friends, and Great Pyrenees, "Moose". DREW LOVED music, art, cooking, reading, Tex-Mex food, and being at the ranch . . . After graduating from Texas Tech, she worked for a real estate group in Ft. Worth. Very Special to DREW was Camp Longhorn and she attended Indian Springs 2000 to 2009. A great swimmer, she won many medals while at camp! DREW is survived by BRYCE and MARK THIEMAN and brother JOE and sister ASHLEY.

PAT GIBSON, MD, age 61, passed away September 12, 2013. His was a life marked by boundless joy, contagious laughter, genuine compassion, abiding faith, and a deep-rooted love for patients, his friends and his family. PAT grew up in Corsicana and after college & medical school made San Angelo his home. He attended CLH Inks Lake in the mid 60's! Survivors include his wife ALICIA and two children.

CAMM LARY, JR., age 76, devoted husband, father, grandfather and servant of Christ, was steadfast, reliable, earnest and true in everything he did. An Alumni and big supporter of CLH, CAMM, his children and all grandchildren have spent many hours at camp as campers, counselors and directors. Survived by wife LOUISE, son Alumni TREY & wife WENDY, grandchildren CAMM IV and GRACIE, daughter Alumni CHRISTINA and CHRIS DAVIS and grandchildren HARRY and ARCHER. A graduate of Texas A&M and UT Law School, CAMM was a leader in the Burnet Community, served in the Texas House of Representatives starting in 1972 and continued being a great influence and leader in the Burnet Community until his death.

ROGER TOLAR, age 90, passed away June 26, 2019 after a life of service to society. He valued family, education, athleticism and teaching children to swim. He was an amazing storyteller, and at age 60 he took up bicycling. ROGER was a Renaissance man. Survived by wife, BETTY CAROLYN, four children, son DR. ROGER L. TOLAR, JR., (TYLEEN), ROBERT JACK TOLAR (DEBRA), ANNA LEIGH TOLAR CHAUVIN (TODD) and TIMOTHY DRYDEN TOLAR (AIMEE) and 13 grandchildren. ROGER was a counselor at Inks Lake for a couple of years in the 70's!

RED DOG . . and White Rock Lake!

Our RED DOG (Ralph) JONES spends plenty of time on his sail boat at White Rock Lake, near Dallas, and likes to dazzle landlubbers with his tales! He remembers when you could go down to the bath house, now a cultural center and pay a nickel for a swim locker. (The only people, he says, who swim in White Rock Lake these days are crime-scent investigators.)

RED DOG JONES

This wonderful story goes on to say when he was ten and attending Camp Longhorn in Burnet was where he hoisted a sail for the first time. He graduated from UT, Austin, where he raced M20 dinghies - "rocket-ships on the water" - when he wasn't playing rugby. But, being from Dallas, he couldn't stay away from White Rock Lake for long, and went back to SMU to study law.

One time, in Sausalito (Calif.) he chartered a boat and the first thing they said was don't sail under the Golden Gate Bridge, so the first thing he did was sail under it, just to say he did it and then he sailed around Alcatraz!!

RED DOG has so many wonderful tales to tell about his boat, the lake and many crazy stories that only RED DOG can tell!

We thank you for sharing this great story. Taken from the Dallas Morning News.

JONES ends the story with .. Sailing comes down to "fiberglass, Dacron, water and wind." And with the up-coming husband and wife regatta, there will also be beer, and a few legends of the lake creature.

BOBBY MANNING

in his Spring pumpkin patch!
And, oh, are those pumpkins big!!

RANDY SHELBURN (l) and BOBBY MANNING checking pumpkins from the Indian Springs pumpkin patch!

IT TOOK HUNTER & LEIGH ATKINS . . . all of these stamps . . . to get their 2019 dues to CLH from Nashville, Tennessee!!

A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO NAN . . . This is about LUKE McNEIL, 1st Term Indian Springs and 2020 will be his 5th year at camp! He is also a mighty fine baseball player. LUKE is 12 years old! . . from his Mom . .

HEY NAN - Just for the record, my son plays tournaments every weekend throughout the year. He's an amazing pitcher and player. Two weeks at camp. Just got him yesterday. Today he pitched faster than I have ever seen. His confidence was up. His courage was up. His fight was up. Thanks Camp Longhorn. Struck out 7 of 9. Camp teaches more than camp! LOVE, REBECCA BLAKEY McNEIL (Alumni)

Austin, TX

Please meet BERKLEY RAGAN KERR, daughter of camper & counselor for many years and now on the staff at C3, COLTON KERR. COLTON and Mom HANNAH are so very proud of this special little lady.

BETSY ANN HAYES (8-14-19), daughter of BRIAN & Alumni MAGGIE HAMMETT HAYES and little Sis to two year old MARY HAYES! They call Belgrade, Montana home!

This is MILES (3-18-19), son of Alumni JACQUELINE MANN-McCULLICK! Proud Mom says he's as sweet as can be, a Longhorn Boy for sure and she is ready to put him on the list!

HATTIE SUE BOWEN (10-4-19), daughter of PATRICK & MEGHAN ROBERTSON BOWEN, granddaughter of ROBBY & DEIDRA HOLOWELL ROBERTSON and great granddaughter of PAT & TEX ROBERTSON

RHETT WILLMON (8-8-18), son of KYLE and Alumni HILLIARY WILLIAMS WILLMON. He was in LUMNews as a new born and now he is a year old and this picture was too cute to pass up!! Parents are CLASP Life Members!

HAYES PARKER (18 months) is the son of Alumni DANIEL and AMANDA PARKER. Big brother, HENRY, is four years old!

Baby Land

This is TRIPP HAUSSER (11-15-18). He is the son of Alumni FORD and RACHEL HAUSSER. With that great smile and excited look TRIPP is ready to help Dad fly the plane!

WILLIAM BARNETT (7-30-19), son of Alumni MARK and KIM BARNETT. Big brother CARSON was a little disappointed that his new brother is a baby. MARK sez he thinks CARSON assumed they were having another 5 year old for him to play with.

MURPHY LINDEN STOUT (8-11-19), daughter of COLE and Alumni ASHLEY BAXTER STOUT. She has three handsome brothers, JACK (16), WRIGHT (4) and HOLLIS (5)!

Our Dues Paying CLASP Members . . We Thank You!

WE THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU! . .

This is the list of CLASP members who paid their dues between April 11, 2019 and August 31, 2019 as well as any member who has ever paid Lifetime dues . . .

A NOTE TO BILL . . .

Thanks for sharing this special note! . . . from Alumni
LACIE PRYOR ORSAK (and friends!)

FROM ALL OF US HERE AT CAMP LONGHORN

We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

WHAT'S COOK'N

FROM THE KITCHEN OF Alumni BRITTANY NEELY! She and husband ZAC have joined the Camp Longhorn Family at Indian Springs. BRITTANY, a teacher, looks forward to being a part of Camp with their sons RYKER (5) and NASH (2) in the summers! Thank you, BRITTANY, for taking the time to jot down these delicious sounding recipes and welcome back to CLH!

Easy Egg Roll In A Bowl

Ingredients:

- 1 lb. lean ground beef or chicken
- 1 medium onion, diced
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- 1/2 tsp. ginger powder
- 2 Tbsp. reduced sodium soy sauce
- 1 (14oz) bag coleslaw mix
- 1 Tbsp. sesame oil
- 3 c. hot cooked brown rice

1/2 c. sweet and sour sauce
Wonton strips, optional

Instructions:

1. In a large skillet over medium-high heat, cook and crumble chicken or beef, onion and garlic. Heat until no longer pink, 6-8 minutes; drain off grease. Stir in soy sauce and ginger.

2. Add coleslaw mix to skillet. Cook and stir until wilted, 3-4 minutes. Stir in sesame oil and rice. Mix until combined. Top with sweet and sour sauce. If desired, top with wonton strips

Blueberry Cream Pie

Ingredients:

- 3 cups of blueberries
- 1 cup of heavy whipping cream
- 2/3 cup of sugar
- 4 Tbsp. all purpose flour OR CORNSTARCH
- 1/4 tsp. orange zest (or lemon)
- 2 Pastry pie crust (home-made or store bought)

Instructions:

1. Pre heat the oven to 400 degrees

2. Pour blueberries into unbaked pie crust.

3. Whisk together heavy cream, sugar, flour, salt, and orange zest.

4. Pour over blueberries

5. Bake 35-42 minutes or until a light golden brown on top. Depending on your oven it may take up to an hour.

6. Cool.

7. Store in the refrigerator. Best if eaten chilled.

White Chocolate Peppermint Cookies

Ingredients:

- 6 tbsp unsalted butter softened
- 1/2 cup granulated (white) sugar
- 1/2 cup light brown sugar
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1/2 tsp baking powder
- 1/2 tsp baking soda
- 1 large egg
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 1 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 1/4 white chocolate chips
- 1/2 cup of peppermint candies crushed

Directions:

1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees.

2. Add the butter, sugar, brown sugar, salt, baking powder and baking soda to the bowl of a stand mixer. Mix on low until combined and the beat on medium speed for about 1 minute. Beat in eggs and vanilla until smooth. Stop mixer and add the flour and white chocolate chips. Mix on low speed until smooth. Mix on low speed until a cohesive cookie dough forms, about 1 minute.

3. Use a medium size cookie scoop to form 24 cookie dough balls. Dip the top half of each ball in crushed peppermint candies. Place cookies on a baking mat or parchment paper.

4. Bake the cookie for 10-11 minutes.

5. The cookies should look a bit underdone when you take them out of the oven. They will set up as they cool.

6. Allow the cookies to cool on the baking sheet for 10 minutes. Transfer them to a cooling rack to cool to room temperature.
